I have entered my Preferences, but when I select a species to report in my observation, the list says "None Selected"?

To see a complete list of species, you must select how you would like them to be displayed. In the Preferences, the Species Name must have either the Scientific or Common button selected.

There are three ways to display the species name. You can display the species name as common only, scientific only, or both scientific and common names.